Healing and wholeness

23-25 November, Holland House, Cropthorne, Nr Pershore

News about the weekend: 'Our time together will be mostly spent in silence, allowing ourselves to become still and know deep within ourselves the healing presence of God. Bishop Michael will lead a series of addresses across the weekend, drawing on his own deep commitment and ministry in the area of healing and wholeness, concluding with Holy Communion, anointing and laying on of hands for those who would like that ministry.' Sunday 28th October 2012

Welcome to St John's. A special welcome to all visitors

Morning service 25th November

There will be a joint service for the whole parish at Christ Church on 25th November, at 10.30 am. Children's activities will be included. Please put this in your diary and if you need a lift let Sharon know. NOTE: There will not be a morning service at St John's on that day, but there will be one as usual in the evening at 6.30pm

Church Warden appointment

Please be praying for a new Churchwarden for St John's, to replace Chris Tennant. Chris will be standing down next April after his 3 year's service, and we need to be praying between now and then for the right person, male or female, to be appointed. Nominations to Gary, please.'

Pastors Piece

We welcome Amelia Makin and her family to St John's today for her Dedication at 4pm; please be praying for them.

I've said before here in my Pastor's Piece that I think it's great to have opportunities for the whole parish to worship together, and 25th November is going to be one such occasion! We'll be meeting at Christ Church on the day that we celebrate Christ the King in the church calendar, before the build-up to Advent and Christmas. Please do make this a date in your diary as all three churches in our area have fellowship together. Garth, Richard and I are planning to build these joint services into our programmes, using our three church centres as venues. Unity is such a precious thing in God's eyes, with Jesus as our chief cornerstone, and each one of us being built into a holy temple that is acceptable to God.

Every blessing,
Gary

Missing you service 10th November

Families who have suffered the loss of a baby can light candles in memory of their children at a special 'Missing You' service 11am, Saturday 10th November at St Peter's Church. The gentle service will include hymns, readings, music and prayers and there will be the opportunity, for those who wish it, to light candles in memory of their child or children they have lost. The service has been organised by the Alexandra Hospital's Spiritual and Pastoral Care Team who can be contacted on (01527) 505723. After the service there will be the chance for bereaved families to mingle and talk over tea and coffee.

Jump evening service

Thank you to all who attended, helped to run the service or donated refreshments last Sunday.

The Collect for today

Almighty God, who built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Jesus Christ himself as the chief cornerstone:
so join us together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.
