Looking forward to Archbishop Justin Welby's visit to Worcester

I know that lots of people across the Diocese are looking forward to meeting Archbishop Justin when he visits us over three days 7th-9th October. I am praying that the visit will be a time of great blessing, affirming the incredible life, ministry and outreach of our churches, as well as bringing encouragement to others who seek to find life in all its fullness in Jesus.

Over the course of the three days there will be whole range of different events, from the low-key visit to a group that works each week with refugees, to a large scale invite-a-friend event in Worcester arena.

All events are planned around the Archbishop's three priorities.

Prayer, reconciliation and evangelism.

It is sometimes said that other people remember how we make them feel far more than what they hear us say. Archbishop Justin's visit will, I pray, enable more people to feel what our life together as the Diocese of Worcester is all about so that they will be receptive to hear about what God has done for us in the birth and life, the passion, death and resurrection, of Jesus. Please pray earnestly that the visit will be good news for the sake of the Good News.

Bishop Graham

The above is an excerpt from Bishop Graham's notice, please pick up a copy of his full address available on the table in the foyer. Put the date in the diary as we will be getting involved in the large scale event in Worcester arena.

Thank you

Thank you to Vicki and Rob for hosting the children's leaders and families social on Friday evening, a good time was had by all.

Weekly Offering Envelopes

The new supply of weekly envelopes to start from July is now available. If you already use this scheme, please pick up your envelopes from the church foyer, and sign for your supply. The weekly envelope scheme is a useful way of starting to give regularly to St John's Church.

If you are a Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax tax payer, we can claim the tax back through Gift Aid. If you are interested in giving regularly via the Weekly Envelope scheme, or by Standing Order via your bank, please speak to Annette Humphrey, or contact by email annettehumphrey@blueyonder.co.uk

Summer

If you can help out in any way over the month of August while people are away please can you let Ann or Sharon know. We are thinking in particular of getting refreshments ready or clearing away after and welcoming people as they arrive.

This August Worcester Cathedral presents a new and specially designed event for visitors. Dressed for Drama costume exhibition will feature around thirty five period costumes from British television and film, including Downton Abbey, Mr Selfridge, Far from the Madding Crowd and The Scandalous Lady W to name just a few and will include some beautiful dresses worn by stars such as Cary Mulligan and Natalie Dormer. The costumes will be displayed in the stunning early 12th Century Chapter House, which is thought to be the first round Chapter House in the world! Visitors to the exhibition will be able to get up close to the costumes to see the designs, embroidery and craftsmanship that they have enjoyed on screen (sorry you won't be allowed to touch the costumes).
